THAT CONFERENCE.

The Republican and Democratic State Central Committees of California will meet at the Palace hotel, in San Francisco, April 24th. The cause of this proposed gathering is equally queer with the company itself. There is to be a Constitutional Convention, and the two parties fearing that the Workingmen might elect delegates, have resolved to unite and make common cause against everybody. In fact, it is regarded as a matter far less important than even a municipal election, where there are offices to hold and spoils to get. We have heard, some time in the past, that these two parties hoped to live upon principle, that each had its views in regard to state and national policy. Yet here we see them coming together for the making of constitutional amendments, while we have never seen them consolidating upon election day. We think that this make-shift is all wrong, and hope that the Republican party leaders at least will try to gain public confidence, and voice the popular sentiment. That is the best way to win, consolidate with the people and let the more efficient and honest of the two or three parties win. This marshaling of politicians for fear the people will express their wise is novel, certainly, and is not the most successful method by far. Consolidate and frame constitutions, then separate and go for the spoils.

A LITTLE TOO MUCH.

The Elko Independent in endorsing the prediction that our next Governor must be an anti-compromise man, says:

Notwithstanding a full appreciation of the fact that an endorsement of these latter sentiments is sure to invoke the indignation of the virtuous Sentinel, and draw down upon our devoted head the outpouring of its bottled wrath, we nevertheless most heartily applaud them to the very echo—third term and all the accompaniments—and shall advocate a fourth, provided the "Old Man" continues to stand squarely up to the interest of the people as against monopolies, as he has done in the past.

This is spreading it on a little too thick, neighbor. We owe it to the people that we make politicians have some regard for their promises. They have said no third term, nor shall there be any. We took great pleasure in endorsing the course of Governor Bradley, but we know that he is now marring his record in seeking a re-election, which he will not get—unless, his opponent is not pledged firmly upon the bullion tax question. He must also have a clear record, and such a man will surely be found.

MUNICIPAL CANDIDATES.

Following are the names of citizens who are willing to serve the dear people in Virginia City as Republican officials:

For Mayor—John Rothenbuecher.
For Chief of Police—Ed. Byrne, W. H. Parker, W. J. Hanks, Sam. Reynolds, H. E. Wood and Benjamin F. Lackey.
For City Attorney—J. K. Brown and R. L. Thomas.
For Tax Collector—J. H. Bornholdt Robert Gracey and W. M. Metcalf.
For City Assessor—Jos. Beer, B. F. Wallace and George Hopkins, Jr.
For City Treasurer—J. C. Hampton.
For Aldermen—First Ward: J. Schneider, W. T. Warren, D. M. Geiger, and Alderman A. V. Comstock; Second Ward, J. W. Orndorff and Andy Peasley; Third Ward, J. S. Young; Fourth Ward, Theodore Lamb and John Barclay.
For City Central Committee—First Ward, D. James; Second Ward, J. Knox; Third Ward, C. F. Kleupfer; Fourth Ward, Lee Wentworth; at large, George A. King.

NEVADA AT PARIS.

One week from Tuesday next, or about May 1st, the great Paris exposition will be thrown open to the public. Of the sixty-nine cases devoted to the Pacific coast, twenty-three are from our own State of Nevada. These specimens of Nevada "fruit" will no doubt be acknowledged the finest collection of minerals which the world has ever seen. The News thinks that our department will attract more attention than any other section of the exposition, and it will certainly divide honor with the crown jewels of England, which are also to be on exhibition. There is legitimate source of pride in the fact that the world will complete and Nevada carry off the palm.

DIED.

Wm. Orton, President of the Western Union telegraph company, died at 7:30 this morning, of apoplexy, in New York City. President Orton was justly classed as one of the best of corporation Presidents, and by his management the Western Union has grown to be one of the richest and most powerful as well as influential companies in the United States. But the Western Union wires also bind in closest communication much of Europe. The company is worth more to-day than $5,000,000, and has quite absorbed the telegraphic world. Mr. Orton was known on all his lines, and by thousands of his employees. He is described as the particular friend of the telegraph operator, whose cause he ever espoused, resisting at all times the often proposed reduction of their wages. Close attention to the immense amount of business, which it was his to superintend, told too plainly on his constitution, and the strong man fell this morning at his post. He was President of perhaps a dozen enterprises, all of which prospered under his management. In executive ability he may be compared with Vanderbilt, but was a man of far more generous impulses. In age he had not scored more than fifty-five or sixty years, but few men have crowded into life more telling work than he, who now is mourned by thousands, and whose acts have justly won the highest tribute of praise from those in the bumble walks, who patiently from day to day, send the electric message to the civilized world. He lived a useful life, one having as few flaws as those who lead men and, and who take upon their shoulders the control of many men and millions of money.

FORENSIC.

The Carson Valley News publishes an exciting account of a debate by the California Debating Association. The subject was simply this:

Resolved: That Nature's laws show growth and decay; that the Earth and all of the Planets will be destroyed by Nature's Laws.

It would not seem that this question afforded much opportunity for display or extended argument, but the following example will show:

Mr. G—, in the affirmative, said "the very mountains show it, they are wearing away. The moon is now a dead planet—it was at one time inhabited, but it wore itself away and is now defunct. These mountains are wearing away; these glorious peaks, which loom up against the sky like giant shadows, are crumbling beneath the hand of Time. The earth will finally become as level as the dry as the desert of Sahara. Mr. President the earth must finally decay."

Mr. S—, in the negative, offered this in evidence: I can hardly admit that the moon is a dead planet, as I have read somewhere that it was made of green cheese—if this be so, surely it must contain animal life.

The case was therefore lost? The subject for next meeting will be "The Mutability of the Unchangeable," while the "Possibility of the Impossible" comes out one week later.

STATE NEWS.

Navajo is one of the tumbler.
Forey Gregory is in Bodie.
Bodie is to have a local land office.
Tuscarora will have a race track.
Elko complains of the street wandering swine. Ditto.
Elko had a twenty-four hour snow storm last week. Six inches.
Edward Dunn hung himself in Eureka April 20th.
Loomis wants Eureka to have bathing facilities.
Daniel Ring lost his life in the Alta mine April 20th.
Tuscarorans and Elkovians are going to war over a base ball match.
Eureka has a jockey club, also a big ditch which "smells to heaven" and breeds sickness.
The jury in the case of Chief Breen of Virginia disagreed. Cowie was discharged.
The Grand Prize has struck a very rich stringer of ore which it is thought will prove a large deposit as greater depth is reached.
W. S. Keyes says, in his report on the Hamburg, that the Eureka mining district, second only to the famous Comstock, has already yielded a gross product in gold, silver and lead of $30,000,000 since the year 1870, and it stands first to-day in the list of silver lead producers of America, and probably of the world, its monthly output approximating in value the sum of $1,000,000.

The Eastern Situation.

A London dispatch of April 20 says: Your correspondent has always based his confidence that England and Russia would not go to war on the Eastern question upon the conviction that England could not afford to demand more than Russia would concede as war's alternative. The situation remains unchanged. Russia will eventually recede in some form her refusal to submit the whole treaty of San Stefano to European arbitration. This will save British honor without depriving Russia of the practical fruits of her victory over Turkey, as these will have been already gained by continental diplomacy. It will restrict Russia as a power from further territorial acquisitions without wresting from her grasp what she has already seized with the intent to maintain it. It seems quite clear that Austria and Germany will not uphold Roumania's objection to Russian reacquisition of Bessarabia. They will insist on the freedom of the Danube, but they sympathize with the Czar's desire to recover the territory at its mouth, of which he was formerly despoiled. In Asiatic Turkey Russia cares for little beyond a port and one stronghold to protect it. The rest she will abandon, if necessary. The recent change in the Turkish Ministry has slight significance for either England or Russia. The latter doubtless gains much by the dismissal of Ahmed Vefik, her most active and able opponent, but this was accomplished by the retirement also of Rouf and Osman Pashas, who were pro-Russian in their sympathies. In any event, it is now apparent that the armies will not be disengaged in time to participate in this year's agricultural pursuits. They will continue to be consumers, and not producers, for months to come. California grain growers accordingly may reasonably anticipate another good European market for their crops, at fair prices.

Jottings.

—Mr. Jerry Schooling, State Treasurer, was in town to-day.

—Nevada potatoes in Sacramento are retailed by the sack for four cents per pound. Farmers, now is the time to sell your potatoes.

—Mr. J. C. Hagerman on Saturday shipped a car and a half of potatoes to California. The car load was shipped to Sacramento.

—The invitation party this evening at Smith's Academy of Music promises to be a pleasant affair. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock.

—Mr. E. T. Burgess to-day opened a chair manufactory on Virginia street. He will make those strong chairs with rawhide seats. Success to the enterprise.

—Forepaugh's advertising car went to Virginia City this morning. The great circus will be here May 9th. Boys take notice.

—"Who leave hope behind enter here"

—Dante. Not so with those who call at Nathan's and examine his new stock of goods. With him you leave your money and walk forth clad in the habiliments of the gentleman.

—The case of W. C. Ricard makes little progress in the District Court, much of the time being occupied in the discussion of the admissibility of certain evidence. Several days will yet be consumed in the trying of young Ricard's case.

—Mr. Jas. Borland and wife are in the burg. Mr. B. says that by a cave in the Rye Patch mine last Saturday forenoon his cousin, Robt. Borland, received injuries about the head and spine which are very serious if not fatal. None others were hurt by this caving.

BURGLARY.—Some party or parties last night broke into the barber shop of Morris & Co., on Virginia street and stole from the razor drawer seven razors. Mr. Morris will liberally reward anyone who will return to him the stolen property, and ask no questions. He is at a loss to account for such an unusual theft. Mr. Friedman's razors in the same shop were untouched.

That champagne older manufactured by A. J. Jones on Second street, cannot be excelled.

THE WORKINGMEN.

Hoole and Jones Reconciled—Friedman Not Reconciled—Speeches.

About seventy-five laborers assembled at the Reno Opera House on Saturday last for the regular meeting of the Washoe County Workingmen. Mr. Hoole came forward and stated that he would act as President in the absence of Mr. Walker, who was detained by sickness in his family. The minutes were read and approved.

Mr. Cooke offered an amendment increasing the number of Vice-Presidents to three. It was adopted, and Messrs. C. W. Ward, A. C. White and Geo. Cutting were nominated. Ward and Cutting were successful.

Mr. Cooke was appointed a committee of one to conduct the Vice-Presidents forward. He led Mr. Cutting forward, but Mr. Ward was "lost to sight to memory dear." Mr. Cutting said that he had very little to say. As long as the movement was characterized by purity he would be in it. When it took another turn he would take his hat and get out. He was going to deport himself as Vice-President that they may with pride say, "by his fruits you know him." Mr. Cutting was loudly applauded and it was plainly to see that although Hoole might be President, Cutting was master of the situation.

Mr. Hoole then stated that some committees were necessary and after some little discussion the following were appointed by the Chair:

Executive—J. F. Cooke, John H. Miller, S. E. Kimball, M. Gulling, A. C. White.

Finance—John Hoy, James Sullivan, Roger Johnson.

Investigation—J. M. Hoyek, Peter Robertson, Mr. Fox, M. White.

Mr. Cooke declined to serve, saying he did not aspire, but wanted to go forward as a high private to a glorious victory. Mr. Hoole stated that the only way for a man to get out of office in the organization was for the members to fire him out. Mr. Cooke did not desire to be fired.

Mr. White here rose and with some preliminary remarks demanded a committee on platform and declaration of principles, so that the workingmen of this county might go before the world armed with the documents. Mr. White is very energetic in his remarks, but his delivery is not all that could be desired. The committee was appointed as follows:

Platform and declaration of principles.—A. C. White, J. F. Cooke, M. Gulling, R. Leeper, Jas. Sweeney.

The committee then withdrew to organize, and eloquence was declared to be in order. The members all seemed anxious to let off some surplus steam, but yielded to J. A. Jones, who was supposed to be "the great disaffected." Citizen Jones stated that he had been accused of treason. He showed that he was not a traitor, and called upon Mr. Hoole to say that he (Hoole) had no personal knowledge of what he had talked about. Hoole said that Jones was either a knave or a fool. He knew he wasn't a fool, and didn't believe he was a knave, hence had been perplexed to account for Jones' course. Mr. Jones, in an after speech, stated that he was a cook and a friend of the Workingmen's party, thus solving Mr. Hoole's perplexity, and settling the whole difficulty. Mr. Cooke, Mr. Cutting and Jim Sullivan then indulged in congratulatory addresses, the latter remarking that they must whip the Democratic and Republican parties clean out of their boots, after which the meeting adjourned. Louis Friedman, the prime mover in the organization of the club, stated to us last night that there was a desire to give him the cruel shake, and that he did not propose to have it in that form. His card appears elsewhere to-day, and we will only remark "what shall it profit the club if Jones be reconciled and Friedman be not reconciled."

PRIVATE SCHOOL.—Miss Kate Benham this morning opened a private school at the Congregational church. Miss Benham is a young lady of excellent attainments and one who understands how to most satisfactorily impart instruction to her pupils. We trust that she will meet with liberal patronage from parents.

ARRESTED.—A man giving his name as Charles Smith was arrested last night by Constable Barlow and detective Len Harris. Smith is said to be a regular thief. He was arrested for stealing a pair of blankets from one of the train men on the emigrant train which passed west Sunday afternoon.

Cheap Advertising.

Realizing the fact that times are dull and that trade and transfers of property are quickened by advertising, we have opened a column under the head of "fifty cents per week," especially for the benefit of those who want to supply. If you have anything to sell, a horse, cow, or wagon, we will call your neighbor's attention to the fact. If you want a situation fifty cents is little enough to pay for it. If you are in need of help on the ranch, or in the house, let your neighbor know it by advertising. Fifty cents a week may easily save you days of skirmishing without results. We shall endeavor to make the new department as interesting and fresh as our local page, and we know that wants can be supplied, and purchase and sale made through this medium at a very trifling expense. Don't be afraid to advertise what you want. Your neighbor may have the very article and be anxious to sell it. Such facts will be easily learned through a small ad.

CARD.

To the Workingmen of Reno: GENTLEMEN: Being one of the organizers of the Workingmen's Party in Reno, I feel that I am entitled to a public hearing when I know that their interests are being misrepresented, and rank injustice operates to the detriment of their cause. This party, as it now exists in Reno, is not truly a workingman's party. It is being run by a politician, who acts with too much authority; and because of his position in the club uses his influence and power to the injury of the workingmen. I see no way out of this awkward dilemma but that I shall renounce all connection with this so-called Workingmen's Party, and I do hereby issue a call to workingmen to meet me, time and place to be decided soon, when we will proceed to effect an organization of a real Workingmen's Party, a party whose sole object shall be the good of the workingmen themselves, and none others, of Washoe county. An honest Workingmen's Party is what we need, and will have, and it shall not be ruled or dictated to by one or more politicians.

Respectfully yours,
L. E. FRIEDMAN.
Reno, April 23d, 1878.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE MUTUAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF PETALUMA, CAL.—We have examined the plan upon which the Mutual Relief Association of California is working. We find that its agent is also provided with references from reliable men in Petaluma and San Francisco, which attest the character of the institution and recommend it to the consideration of provident men. These recommendations vouch for the economical and honest management of the concern, and Mr. James E. Whitson, General Agent of the Association, is now in Reno, where he will remain for the next two weeks. He will explain the workings to any enquirer, and fill out applications for any one desirous of joining the Association. Mr. Whitson has brought recommendations which speak highly of his character, and vouch for his standing as a business man and Agent of the Association.

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Brown & Harney, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and sell them cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

General Babcock is planting in his orange grove at Melonville, Florida, a number of fine seedlings sent to him by General Grant.

The Nationals have nominated David Kirk and Samuel Watson for Congress in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Districts of Pennsylvania.

The Hon. Clarkson N. Potter is the best dressed man in the House of Representatives, at Washington. He is also a very good looking man, is rich, and has no cares about the future. Still, Mr. Potter would not object to being the next Governor of New York.

General C. W. Field, the new door-keeper of the House, has spent several years in the service of the Khedive. He resigned his post and returned to Georgia because of the lack of schools in Egypt for his children. The political disabilities imposed on him by his Confederate service were removed about two months ago.

Mr. Harrison Ainsworth is now a well preserved gentleman of three-score years and twelve, gray as to locks, but keeping still the well-cut features of the juvenile dandy whom MacLise painted. He confirms the story of the rapid writing of the fourth book of "Rookwood," saying that he finished it in twenty-four hours of continuous work.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson is a gentle-hearted man, as well as a fine actor and an accomplished gentleman. Not long ago he found an old blind fisherman angling in the bayou near his Louisiana plantation, and became so interested in him that he sent him to a clever oculist in New Orleans, with instructions to spare no expense in restoring his sight.

The Republican candidate for mayor for Kansas City, Mr. A. L. Mason, resigned on the eve of election because the committee assessed him $2,500. This enormous assessment, he said, could not be required for legitimate purposes, and the action of the committee he denounced as "an outrage and an infamous attempt to blackmail to which no honorable man could submit."

Patrick Rafferty, who has just retired Lough Glinn, Roscommon, from New York, has shot and killed a finch named Sherlock. He gave Sherlock $25, for which the latter was to furnish him £30 in counterfeit money, for which he pretended to have facilities for making, and when Rafferty, who is a man of forty, discovered that he was being duped, he became terribly enraged and wrought the murder.

"The most perilous hour of a person's life is when he is tempted to despair" is one of the gems of thought which from a floating column of wisdom. True to the dot, every word of it, and that dread crisis never comes so near, overtaking a man as it does just after he gets married and wakes up to the fact that "nobody can cook like mother."

Paul Cassagnac is coming to him. This is the place for him. He can get into more fights here in a week by publishing the names in the Police Court than he could get into in France in a year; and, as he will probably get licked every time, it may do him good, and send him back to France a sadder, wiser and more circumspect man.

They make jewelry out of sour milk in Mansfield, Mass. The curd is heated and coloring matter introduced. Heavy pressure follows. This is all that is known, for the process is a secret. But there is enough jewelry in the country. A better invention would be to turn tawdry brooches into milk. That would be worth discovering.

Congressman Wood's new tariff bill imposes a tax of thirty-five per cent on "matches of all kinds." Young persons about to enter the matrimonial state should remonstrate at once. The tax is onerous. What is needed is a tax of about ninety-five per centum on long engagements.

In the slander case of Maggie McBride vs. Mrs. Carmel Fallon, at San Jose, for $50,000, the jury brought in a verdict for defendant.
